

Five week
scheme

Learning objectives

- ◆ To appreciate that difference is a positive thing.
- ◆ To acknowledge difference within the community and celebrate its impact.
- ◆ To understand that difference is essential to a diverse community.
- ◆ To be able to identify there are differences and similarities between disabled and non-disabled people.
- ◆ To appreciate how some disabled people are treated, and how this must make them feel.
- ◆ To recognise and acknowledge positive role models of people who have a disability.
- ◆ To understand what the term 'Disability Hate Crime' means and what the consequences would be.
- ◆ To be able to describe how bullying affects victims.
- ◆ To be able to explain what you could do if you are a victim or witness of bullying.

Scheme of work

Scheme of work written and produced by Clair Warner
Newbridge Outreach Service
Newbridge School
Barley lane
Goodmayes
Essex
www.redbridgeserc.org

